

Aug. 20, 2007

To whom it may concern,

I am Rebecca D. Evans, 20 years old, sister of Lisa A. Russian. Also Aunt to Roger Choate II and BreeOnna Choate. I live at 11533 St. Rt. 131, Symsonia, KY, 42082. Phone number: 270-851-2967.

Lisa is my sister and I have known her all my life. During the past ten years I have watched her spiral out of control, abusing drugs and alcohol. She has become very dysfunctional, and is inconsiderate of the needs of others, even her own children. I have seen Lisa be mentally and physically abusive to the children. She has left her children for weeks on end with me and my mother without even a phone call.

During the past five years, Lisa has not held a stable home nor job. She has had many different men come in and out of her and the children's lives, most of the time more than one at a time. She has taught the children to lie and misbehave.

In my opinion, Lisa Russian is a terrible role model for her children. She has severe mood swings even at times forgetting who she is and who others are. Drugs and alcohol are more important to her than her own children, she abuses them daily. Her household is not safe for young children.

The Choate children should be in the care of their father, Roger Choate. These children need a stable home and loving affection to grow into reasonable adults that can function properly in society. They need a chance to be children and enjoy their youth without drugs and alcohol surrounding them. In their father's home, they would not be called names or beat around. That is why I believe strongly Roger's home is where they should be.

Sincerely,

Rebecca D. Evans